

Officially in August

What happens when you combine the month of August with the Coronavirus? A newsletter like this.

The Worship Team will continue to practice on Tuesdays; the Ladies Prayer Meeting will continue on Wednesdays. We will continue to meet for worship on Saturday evenings as well as Sunday mornings; and livestreaming the Sunday service. Elders will meet as often as they have to; and the Missions Committee is meeting on Monday the August 10th.

Pastor John will preach August 1 & 2, as Pastor Steve will be returning from camp. Steve will be on vacation the next two weeks, and the pulpit will be filled by Dan Shumway and Pastor John, in that order.

Davenport School is set to begin on August 25th. Christian Heritage School will begin September 3rd. (as of the time of this writing).

Otherwise, August should be a very quiet month for everyone not involved in harvest. Enjoy the break, and be ready for fall.

Coming in September

We all know what plans are worth right now, but we are making plans just the same. Here is some of what we anticipate for the fall.

- We will return to one service on September 13, following Labor Day.
- Sunday School will resume September 13.
- We will continue live-streaming the Sunday Service.
- Awana will resume the week of September 16.
 - Awana will meet over two evenings to keep size down.
 - One evening for Sparks and Cubbies, one for T&T & Trek & Journey.
- Look for a new Membership Class to begin.

As much as possible, we hope to return to business as usual in September.

Small Groups

The idea started out of discussions about possible rollbacks in meeting requirements. The Church needs in-person contact, so how can we make it happen? We learned that churches and religious organizations are exempt from the most recent size limitations, but liked the idea anyway. Here's how it works.

Groups of 10 or less will meet weekly in homes or at church with a copy of the Pastor's sermon notes.

Group leaders' duties:

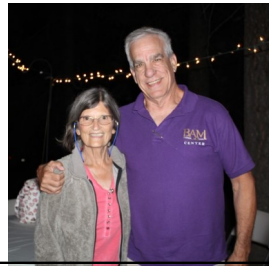

- Pre-prepare
- Host up to your home's comfort limit, or a group of up to 10 at church.
- Provide snacks
- Facilitate discussion

The church will act as a clearing house for people looking to join a group. We will have info on hosts, locations, times and dates, and group size and members.

If you are interested in hosting or joining a group, call or email the church.
